

Endometriosis – Application- Program Privacy Policy

Last updated: May 25, 2022

Who is responsible for this program?

Your privacy is important to us. We are funded by the St. Michael's Hospital Innovation Grant and Women's Health Research Chair and are part of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at St. Michael's Hospital, Unity Health Toronto. This application is led by Dr. Carmen McCaffrey.

Our Privacy Policy may be updated at any time; the Owner may revise this Agreement at any time by updating this posting

How we collect, use, store and protect your information in this program

To use the App, you will need to provide an email address and make a password to create an account. Unity Health Toronto will save your email address on secure a Unity Health Toronto server for purposes of managing your account, account creation, account recovery, as permitted in the Terms and Conditions [link], responding to your emails (eg., confirmation of account deletion) and notifying you about changes to our policies or terms and conditions. By utilizing our App, you consent to receiving emails from us. These communications will include emails about your account (e.g., confirmation of an account, password reset).

The Unity Health will not use your email address for any marketing or advertising purposes and will not share your email address with any third-parties.

Your participation in the Endometriosis application is voluntary. You can delete your account at any time by emailing my.endo@unityhealth.to and ask to delete your account

Push notifications

This app does not use push notifications.

Third-Party Websites

Our application may include links to third-party websites. These website links are provided to you to explore educational content outside of our application. We do not own any of these third-party websites. Our privacy policy only applies to our website and App.

We recommend reviewing the websites' privacy policies to see if they collect any of your personal data when using their websites.

Questions or concerns

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, including to make a complaint or to withdraw consent for participation in this application you can contact us by email at my.endo@unityhealth.to.